We had a very successful turnout for the Sadie Hawkins Golf Tournament on Saturday, August 13, 2016. This was our 31st year of the Annual Sadie Hawkins Golf Tournament! We are proud that this tournament has reached the 31st year of ladies & gentlemen playing as a team! The Butternut Creek Ladies organized this annual golf tournament on July 10, 1985 and are proud to say that it is still going!

All participants were welcomed as they entered the Banquet Room for registration, purchasing mulligans, raffle tickets and enjoying the beautiful decorations that had been provided by Kathie McAfee. After enjoying a delicious breakfast, prepared by our ladies, a group picture was made of all couples participating with the Butternut Creek Golf Course in the background! Scott Thompson welcomed all participants, thanked the ladies for a delicious breakfast and gave out final instructions to be followed before we entered the field. We had a field of 18 couples (36 players) who were very anxious to get started. Excitement was building up as each couple was looking forward to being one of the winners in their flight! Sometime around 1 p.m., players came in from the field to enjoy a delicious lunch prepared by our View Grill in the Banquet Room. As players were enjoying their lunch, score cards were tallied up and winners posted according to the couple's net score in their applicable flight.

And the winners were: 1st Flight: 1st Place went to Jennifer and David Jetton a with a net score of 60; 2nd Place went to Megan & James Rowe with a net score of 61; 3rd Place went to Mary & Ron Mallory with a net score of 64.

He has not indicated he wants to retire, but conversation about NASCAR's most popular driver and his future is unavoid-Former Charlotte racing promoter Humpy Wheeler said Earnhardt has no reason to risk coming back. 'He doesn't need any more money. He doesn't need to race anymore and he's at an age where a driver really ought to think about retirement anyway," Wheeler said. The television reporters Peyton Manning. Yeah it stinks for a while, but it'll come back," race fan Will Dewese said. As NASCAR's favorite driver takes even more time away to recover, some believe he might never return, even though he hasn't called it quits yet. "I think this is a very pressing situation for him," said fan

Walt Edwards. "Whether there is
