Basketball resumes Tuesday following weather cancelations

Union County travels to Banks and Athens Academy, at home Saturday

By Todd Forrest Sports Editor sports@nganews.com

Winter weather forced Union County basketball to reschedule three games this month, but with warmer temperatures expected this week, the Panthers and Lady Panthers will return to the hardwood with three games in five days.

Union County will face a pair of ranked teams when they visit Banks County on Tuesday, Jan. 23. Both Union squads hit the road again on Friday, Jan. 26 at Athens Academy.

The Panthers and Lady Panthers will host their first home contest in two weeks when Fellowship Christian makes the trip to Blairsville on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Meanwhile, last Friday's trip to Providence has been rescheduled for Saturday, Feb. 3.

This Tuesday's road game at Homer could determine the top-seed and host site in next month's Region 8-AA tourney. The 10th-ranked Leop-ards remain undefeated in 8-AA while No. 9 Union County sits second as the region's only oneloss team.

With two losses, Athens Academy is right behind Union County, adding extra significance to Friday's road trip.

As for the Lady Panthers, both Union and No. 5 Banks County are unbeaten in region play, setting up a firstplace showdown in Homer on Tuesday.

At the moment, Union and Banks have pulled away from the rest of 8-AA and are on the verge of locking down the top-two seeds.

First-year head coach Thomas Nelson and his Lady Panthers can take over sole possession of first place in Region 8-AA with a win on Tuesday. Photo/Todd Forrest

Mountain Gymnastics Center's 2023-24 season gets underway in Woodstock

Woodstock - Blairsville's Mountain Gymnastics Center (MGC) participated in meets in November and December -- beginning with the Turkey Tumble in Woodstock on Nov. 15.

Shaylynne Davis placed first all-around for Level 5 in Woodstock with a score of 35.7, finishing first in two events, the bars and beam, with respective scores of 9.15 and 8.6. She also placed third in the vault (8.9) and floor (9.05).

Addison Harkins finished first in the beam event with an 8.65 and second on bars with an 8.9 to finish fourth all-around with a 35.325.

Addyson Lee logged top-five finishes on beam (fourth), bars and floor.

In Diamond level competition, Emma Schuette finished third all-around at 36.025 behind a second-place performance (8.9) on bars.

In USA Gold competition, Kylee Coggins finished fifth on bars and beam.

In December, MGC competed at the Winter Warm-Up meet in Dahlonega. Results will be available in a future edition of the North Georgia News.
