everyone to pay their fair share. On the other hand, sales tax is often referred to as a regressive tax, meaning that if you pay $ 1.00 tax on a hundred dollar purchase, that $1 will impact a poor person more than some others. I certainly do not argue with this point.

Q. Someone told me that they would not vote for the TSPLOST and the SPLOST both and I should choose which I thought was more important for the county. Which is more important?

A. They are both important. Please do not confuse your anger with the federal government when thinking about local government. We utilize your taxes wisely and conservatively and will continue to do so, as we always have. Whatever revenue we have to work with is what we will utilize. So whether TSPLOST passes or not, we will make the best of it. However, our county could never do without our SPLOST, as it is the backbone for making us one of the best counties in the state.

Q. If we vote for TSPLOST in Union County will it pass just in our county?

A. No. It has to pass region wide for it to pass here. Even if we voted for it and the majority of the folks in the other 12 counties voted against it in our region, it would fail and likewise, if we voted against it and it passed by a majority of the other counties, then it would pass for all counties in our region.

Q. Are you not concerned that by letting us know that you will vote for TSPLOST that it could hurt you politically in this election year?

A. I always try to make my commissioner decisions based on what is best for Union County, not what is best for me. That was the case in deciding on changing every address in our county and that was the case in making the decision to build the farmers market, horse arena and community center. My decisions are never easy. However, this is not my decision alone, but your decision. I am just one vote out of thousands and it is truly a personal decision for every voter to make.

clearly." For God's sake won't someone just honestly say, "I committed a terrible sin?"

Astronomically, our present situation tells me that if we don't stop listening to loony star-gazers and start listening to the ONE who created the stars, the sky is going to fall.

Theologically, our situation tells me if America doesn't quit looking for sedatives from star-gazers and soothsayers and begin seriously seeking solutions from the bright and Morning Star, America's flickering light could be extinguished by the ONE who holds the seven stars in His right hand (Revelation 2:1).

Meteorologically, it tells me that America has gotten off course by listening to these wandering stars (Book of Jude v. 13).

Furthermore, if there is going to be many more beautiful tomorrows, we must be-their 4th child was born Zed and Sue quarreled over his drinking. Zed lost his temper and struck Sue in the face and on her head many times. Zed left Sue lying on the floor, unconscious and bleeding. Late that evening her sister came for a visit and found her battered sister still on the floor.

Later that evening word got around to the brothers about what had happened to their sister. The boys all met at their Daddy's house. After supper they waited until dark and then slipped down to the local bootlegger's place. The Baker brothers knew that Zed had been drinking all day. The 8 brothers slowly surrounded the still and raised their guns. My great grandfather, Dad Baker, was the leader. So, he called out to his brother-in-law, "Zed, come out of there. I aim to talk with you". Zed staggered out from the still house with his hands on his head. The Baker boys tied Zed with leather tongs and forced him to walk 3 miles back to Dad's home place at Gray Rock. Upon reaching the home place they locked Zed up in a corn crib made of chestnut logs. Zed stayed locked up in the corn crib for 21 days and was fed nothing but corn bread and water.

About the incident my grandmother was asked, "Why didn't the boys call the sheriff?" Grand maw said, "Back then the law wouldn't come to Ray Mountain. So, we took care of our own". So, the next time you hear someone say the people of Appalachia are clannish or they talk funny remember there is a reason for that. Next Saturday, July 28th, the Green Bean Festival will be held at the Union County Farmers Market. We will be open from 7 Am until 7 PM. Please come out to be with us during the day. Also, it is not too late to enter the Green Bean Recipe Contest or the Canning Contest. Go to Greenbeanfestival.com to find out more information about these two contests. We will also have crafts, food, ice cream, exhibits and even a dunking booth at the festival. Yes, I am planning on being in the dunking booth.

Signs are installed so that vehicles know to go slow over this area of pavement. After about one week when the tar has cured, the Road Dept will come back with a street sweeper and remove all the extra gravel and soon you will barely notice the patched area except for the different look.

This patching process is done every spring and early summer and we receive a few complaints each year, but normally they are not accusing me of "election shenanigans". I can assure the gentleman that if we could afford to simply resurface every road in the county that had weak spots in it, we would certainly do it. However, this patching method helps maintain the road in a better condition until the county can afford to come back and resurface the entire road. Contrary to his suggestion that we "unnecessarily wasted taxpayers money", it is just the opposite, as we are saving hundreds of thousands of dollars of taxpayers funds by using this method. We apologize for the inconvenience to this gentleman and our other citizens impacted, but this has been going on for several years and will continue. In the future, we will try to place an article in the newspaper each spring reminding folks of this process. Lamar Paris

May the Day Star, who is Christ the Lord, arise in our hearts. I know some of you will say, "Preacher Danny has grown old and has become pessimistic, paranoid and senile." Well, you would be right about old, (above 70) but I may see with a sharper conscience (to know with) than ever. The prophet Amos was asked by Jehovah God, "Amos, what do you see?" What he saw was not a beautiful tomorrow, but judgment at the door. Mr. & Mrs. Reader, What do you see???
